Nine Hundred Miles

Well I'm walkin' down the track, I got tears in my eyes
Tryin' to read a letter from my home

cho:

If that train runs me right, I'll be home tomorrow night
'Cause I'm nine hundred miles from my home.
And I hate to hear that lonesome whistle blow

Well the train I'm on is a hundred coaches long
You can hear the whistle blow a hundred miles.

I will pawn you my watch, I will pawn you my chain
Pawn you my gold diamond ring.

Well if you say so, I will railroad no more
Sidetrack my train and come home.

10,000 Miles

I'm goin' away for to stay a little while,
But I'll be back if I go ten thousand miles.

Oh, who will tie your shoes ?
And who will glove your hands?
And who will kiss your ruby lips when I am gone?

Look away, look away over Yandro...

You've gone away for to stay for a little while,
But you'll be back if you go ten thousand miles.

Father will tie my shoes,
And mother will glove my hand,
And you will kiss my ruby lips when you return

Look away, look away over Yandro...

A Capital Ship

(Charles Edward Carryl)

A capital ship for an ocean trip
Was the "Walloping Window Blind"
No wind that blew dismayed her crew
Or troubled the captain's mind
The man at the wheel was made to feel
Contempt for the wildest blow-ow-ow
Tho' it oft appeared when the gale had cleared
That he'd been in his bunk below

So, blow ye winds, heigh-ho
A-roving I will go
I'll stay no more on England's shore
So let the music play-ay-ay
I'm off for the morning train
To cross the raging main
I'm off to my love with a boxing glove
10,000 miles away

The bos'un's mate was very sedate
Yet fond of amusement too
He played hop-sotch with the starboard watch
While the captain tickled the crew
The gunner he was apparently mad
For he sat on the after ra-ra-rail
And fired salutes with the captain's boots
In the teeth of a booming gale

The captain sat on the commodore's hat
And dined in a royal way
Off pickles & figs & little roast pigs
And gunners bread each day
The cook was Dutch and behaved as such
For the diet he served the crew-ew-ew
Was a couple of tons of hot-cross buns
Served up with sugar and glue

Then we all fell ill as mariners will
On a diet that's rough and crude
And we shivered and shook as we dipped the cook
In a tub of his gluesome food
All nautical pride we cast aside
And we ran the vessel asho-o-ore
On the Gulliby Isles where the poopoo smiles
And the rubbily ubdugs roar

Composed of sand was that favored land
And trimmed with cinnamon straws
And pink and blue was the pleasing hue
Of the ticke-toe teaser's claws
We sat on the edge of a sandy ledge
And shot at the whistling bee-ee-ee
While the rugabug bats wore waterproof hats
As they dipped in the shining sea

On rugabug bark from dawn till dark
We dined till we all had grown
Uncommonly shrunk when a Chinese junk
Came up from the Terrible Zone
She was stubby and square, but we didn't much care
So we cherrily put to sea-ea-ea
And we left all the crew of the junk to chew
On the bark of the rubabug tree

Tobacco's But an Indian Weed

Tobacco's but an Indian weed,
Grows green at morn, cut down at eve,
It shows our decay, we are but clay
Think on this when you smoke tobacco.

The pipe that is so lily-white,
Wherein so many take delight;
Is gone with a touch, man's life is such,
Think on this when you smoke tobacco.

The pipe that is so foul within,
Shows how man's soul is stain'd with sin,
It does require, to be purged by fire,
Think on this when you smoke tobacco.

The smoke that does so high ascend,
Shews that man's life must have an end,
The vapour's gone, man's life it is done
Think on this when you smoke tobacco.

The ashes that are left behind,
Do serve to put us all in mind;
That into dust, return we must,
Think on this when you smoke tobacco.

Woody Knows Nothin' but Peckin' on a Bough

Woody knows nothing
But peckin' on a bough.
Ah, but the sky's are blue!
I never knew till I met you
What true love could do, oh do,
What true love could do.

Can't you picture a turtle dove
Flying from pine to pine,
Mournin' for his own true love
As I, my dear, for mine, O mine,
As I, my dear, for mine.

Bluejay pulled a four-horse plow,
"Sparrow, why can't you?"
" 'Cause my legs is little and long,
They might get broke in two,
They might get broke in two."

Redbird sittin' on sycamore limb,
Singin' out his soul.
Big black snake crawled up that tree,
Swallowed that poor boy whole,
Swallowed that poor boy whole.

I'm but a poor little country boy,
Money have I none,
But there is silver in the moon,
Gold in the morning sun, O sun,
Gold in the morning sun.

The Crawdad Song

You get a line and I'll get a pole, Honey
You get a line and I'll get a pole, Babe
You get a line and I'll get a pole
We'll go fishin' in the crawdad hole
Honey, Baby mine

Sittin' on the bank 'til my feet get cold, Honey
Sittin' on the bank 'til my feet get cold, Babe
Sittin' on the bank 'til my feet get cold
Lookin' down that crawdad hole
Honey, Baby mine

Yonder comes a man with a sack on his back, Honey
Yonder comes a man with a sack on his back, Babe
Yonder comes a man with a sack on his back
Packin' all the crawdads he can pack
Honey, Baby mine

The man fell down and he broke that sack, Honey
The man fell down and he broke that sack, Babe
The man fell down and he broke that sack
See those crawdads backing back
Honey, Baby mine

I heard the duck say to the drake, Honey
I heard the duck say to the drake, Babe
I heard the duck say to the drake
There ain't no crawdads in this lake
Honey, Baby mine

Snowbird

Beneath this snowy mantle, cold and clean
The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn to green
The snowbird sings a song he always sings
And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in spring

When I was young my heart was young then too
Anything that it would tell me, that's the thing that I would do
But now I feel such emptiness within
For the thing that I want most in life is the thing I can't win

Spread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you, where it came from on that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could, you know that I would, fly away with you

The breeze along the river seems to say
That she'll only break my heart again should I decide to stay
So little snowbird take me with you when you go
To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flow.

I Am Just a Country Boy

I ain't gonna marry in the fall
Ain't gonna marry in the spring
'Cause I'm in love with a pretty little girl
Who wears a diamond ring

And I'm just a country boy
Money have I none
But I've got silver in the stars
And gold in the mornin' sun
Gold in the mornin' sun

Never gonna kiss the ruby red lips
Of the prettiest girl in town
Never gonna ask her if she'd marry me
I know she'd turn me down

'Cause I'm just a country boy
Money have I none
But I've got silver in the stars
And gold in the mornin' sun
Gold in the mornin' sun

Never could afford a store bought ring
With a sparklin' diamond stone
All I could afford is a lovin' heart
The only one I own

'Cause I'm just a country boy
Money have I none
But I've got silver in the stars
And gold in the mornin' sun
Gold in the mornin' sun.
